

PLEASE JOIN GYNUITY HEALTH PROJECTS
at the
XXII FIGO WORLD CONGRESS OF GYNECOLOGY AND OBSTETRICS
October 14 -19, 2018 | Riocentro | Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Gynuity Health Projects is again pleased to be part of the FIGO World Congress. We invite you to join us for an exciting program featuring highlights from our global research and collaborative projects on reproductive and maternal health. If you are attending the Congress, we look forward to seeing you at these sessions:

Sunday, October 14, 2018 9:00 – 15:00 Room 201a&b	Pre-congress Workshop: Abortion Technology Training in first and second trimester uterine evacuation techniques for induced abortion, pregnancy loss and fetal demise. Open to new and experienced providers. Workshop outline available here. Organizers National Abortion Federation; Gynuity Health Projects; Fundación Oriéntame; BPAS; Ipas; DKT; Marie Stopes Mexico; Global Doctors for Choice
Monday, October 15, 2018 15.10 Session 2	Free Communication Characterizing Misoprostol's Thermoregulatory Effects When Used to Treat Postpartum Hemorrhage Jesús Daniel Aguirre
Monday, October 15, 2018 16.30 Session 2	Free Communication Core Outcome Sets for Prevention and Treatment of PPH: An International Delphi Consensus Study Jennifer Blum
Tuesday, October 16, 2018 9:00 Session 8	Free Communication Does Route Matter? Intravenous Versus Intramuscular Oxytocin for Prevention of Postpartum Hemorrhage Beverly Winikoff
Tuesday, October 16, 2018 14:30 – 16:00 Room 202a	New Thinking and Innovations in the Management of Postpartum Hemorrhage Time to rethink how we diagnose PPH? What new research tells us about the potential role of shock index in PPH diagnosis Rodolfo Pacagnella University of Campinas The side effects, safety and effectiveness of misoprostol and tranexamic acid in the first line treatment of PPH Jill Durocher The safety and effectiveness of introducing uterine balloon tamponade for PPH management: A stepped wedge, cluster randomized trial in Egypt, Senegal and Uganda Holly Anger No magic bullet: Key lessons learned from global research to introduce new technologies for PPH management Rasha Dabash
Wednesday, October 17, 2018 8:30 – 10:00 Room 202a	New Frontiers in Abortion Care: Translating the Latest Evidence on Medical Abortion Innovations into Simpler More Accessible Services Simplifying and expanding access to outpatient medical abortion: New evidence in settings with and without access to mifepristone Rasha Dabash Management of pregnancy failure: New evidence and clinical updates Hillary Bracken New evidence to support changes in policy, practice and access to medical abortion for women with gestations greater than 13 weeks Jennifer Blum Telemedicine delivery of medical abortion: Evidence from the TelAbortion project in the U.S. Beverly Winikoff

Wednesday, October 17, 2018 10:30 – 12:00 Room 202c Organizers/Moderators Nathalie Kapp, Ipas & Rasha Dabash, Gynuity	Challenging Cases in Care for Termination of Pregnancy Case presentation followed by discussion with: Olímpio Moraes (Brazil), Laura Gil (Colombia), Claudia Martínez López (Mexico), Françoise Hougni (France), & Sharmin Sultana (Bangladesh)
Wednesday, October 17, 2018 16:00 Session 15	Free Communication Stillbirth, Co-Morbidities and Multi-Causality in Maternal Deaths with Obstetric Hemorrhage in Uganda Holly Anger
Thursday, October 18, 2018 11.40 Session 20	Free Communication Understanding the Consequences of Overuse of Uterotonics in Low- and Middle-Income Settings Rasha Dabash
Thursday, October 18, 2018 14:30 – 16:00 Room 205 Moderators Miguel Mancera & Fanny Corrales This session will be in Spanish	Salud de la Mujer en América Latina y el Caribe / Women's Health in Latin America and Caribbean Dimensiones éticas y legales de la confidencialidad en la prestación de servicios de salud reproductiva / Ethical and legal dimensions of confidentiality in the delivery of reproductive health services Pío Ivan Gómez Las obligaciones profesionales en el consultorio y los servicios de salud sexual / Professional obligations in the office and sexual health services Leonel Briozzo Una revisión del régimen legal de indicaciones para el aborto en América Latina y de su implementación / A review of the legal regime of indications for abortion in Latin America and its implementation Raffaella Schiavon La distribución de misoprostol para el manejo de la HPP en base a la experiencia global / Advance distribution of misoprostol for PPH management based on global experience Jill Durocher
Thursday, October 18, 2018 16:00 – 17:30 Room 210 Organizers Abortion & Postabortion Care Consortium Moderator Kathryn Mimno, Pathfinder	De-Medicalizing Abortion and Postabortion Care to Expand Access in the Public and Private Sector in Both Restrictive and Less Restrictive Settings Global evidence and lessons learned on de-medicalization of abortion and postabortion care Rasha Dabash Women's needs, wants and autonomy in accessing safe abortion and postabortion care Patty Skuster Ipas The role of the private sector in abortion and postabortion care Dharmika Perera Marie Stopes International
Thursday, October 18, 2018 16:00 – 17:30 Room 202a Organizers PRE-EMPT Moderators Peter Von Dadelszen & Laura Magee	PRE-EMPT (Preeclampsia–Eclampsia Monitoring, Prevention & Treatment): The Findings PRE-EMPT Overview Peter Von Dadelszen CAP Trial: Does calcium inter- and early-pregnancy replacement (500mg/d) prevent recurrent pre-eclampsia? Justus Hofmeyr PIERS scores and mhealth apps: Time-of-disease risk estimation Beth Payne Oral Antihypertensive Therapy Trial: Comparing the efficacy of oral labetalol, nifedipine & methyldopa in the management of severe pregnancy hypertension Hillary Bracken & Shuchita Mundle CLIP Trials: Creating learning health systems to reduce adverse pregnancy outcomes in India, Pakistan & Mozambique Laura Magee, Mrutunjaya Bellad, Rahat Qureshi & Esperança Sevens

XXII FIGO Congress 2018